

FREE CHESS CAMP

Using chess as an educational tool, we aim to help children improve their critical thinking skills and to enhance their self-esteem

“Win with Grace, Lose with Dignity!”

Sun. Dec. 12th 2:30 PM - 4:30 PM
Room # 202-203

Eagle Chess School of Atlanta is pleased to offer this free beginner chess camp after Thanksgiving at our Atlanta Chinese Christian Church North. The camp is for kids who are new to chess and at least six years old. No experience is necessary as we will teach chess in an easy to understand and interactive fun format.

- Arthur Guo is an International Chess Master (IM). He is a four time national champion and three time international gold medalist for team USA
- Ingrid Guo represented Georgia in national girls tournament four years in a row
- Space limited to the first 50 kids registered via google form on www.eaglechess.org

Supported By